Site Leaders Corner

As we move into April, we are embracing the season of renewal, connection, and community here at Fort Langley Seniors Community. Spring brings fresh energy into our home, and we look forward to another month filled with meaningful moments, engaging programs, and joyful celebrations.

This spring, our home is also preparing for our upcoming Accreditation Canada survey. Accreditation is an important process that helps ensure we are meeting national standards for quality, safety, and resident-centered care. We invite residents and families to join us at our Resident & Family Council Meeting on Tuesday, April 14 to learn more about the accreditation process and how it supports continuous quality improvement in our home.

We are excited to celebrate Easter with special meals for our residents and families, including an Easter Brunch on Sunday, April 5 and an Easter Dinner on Monday, April 6. These celebrations provide a wonderful opportunity to gather, enjoy seasonal favourites, and spend time with loved ones.

Music continues to be a highlight throughout April, with performances from Brian Zalo, our piano player Christine, and the talented duo Ravensong. We will also celebrate our April birthdays at our Monthly Birthday Party on Monday, April 27, featuring Gregg Gorrie on guitar.

We are thrilled to welcome back Pacific Academy students this spring, with their first visit taking place on Thursday, April 23. The primary students bring vibrant energy into our home through singing, reading, and creative activities such as colouring with our “grand friends,” creating meaningful intergenerational connections.

As always, our focus remains on creating a warm, welcoming environment where residents feel supported, engaged, and valued. We are grateful for the ongoing partnership of our families, staff, volunteers, and community supporters who make Fort Langley Seniors Community such a special place.

Thank you for being part of our community. We look forward to sharing another month of meaningful moments together.
